

SeaConvert

SeaConvert — The Windows program that is used to convert .drl files to .csv bundles.

File — Allows user to select to process said desired .drl files.

Open & Process — Allows user to locate the desired .drl file to be converted.

Export — Allows user to change the Save As Type to a .CSV Bundle as well as to choose a location to save the file in.

Bulk Convert — Allows the import of an entire folders worth of .DRL files received from.

Split File — Used for special occasions where the .DRL file or legacy CS is to large for.

Quit — Allows user to close the program.

Packet — Allows the user to view the populated parsed packets that load into the program.